

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Harjit Kaur Perdaman, Malaysia

Dr. Harjit Kaur is a Consultant Breast & Endocrine Surgeon practicing at Prince Court Medical Centre and Gleneagles Kuala Lumpur. She trained and got her Masters of Surgery and went on to get her full fellowship from the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland in 2000. She then trained in Breast and Endocrine surgery at Hospital Putrajaya and did a full breast fellowship at the Royal Perth Hospital, Australia in 2005. She was then gazette by the Director General of Health Malaysia and appointed to the Academy of Medicine of Malaysia. She is a member of the College of Surgeons of Malaysia, the Asian association of Endocrine Surgeons, International Society of Endocrine Surgery and Breast Surgery International. She has published and presented many papers in peer reviewed journals both local and international. She has written numerous articles in the local newspaper and magazines. She has also presented many papers at International conferences and have received awards for some. Her main interest is the Management of Breast Diseases in particular breast cancer. She is trained in oncoplastic breast surgery and performs reconstructions both immediate and delayed. She is certified and trained in Intraoperative radiotherapy as well. Apart from management of breast disease she also manages thyroid and parathyroid diseases.