

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Mastura Md Yusof, Malaysia

Dr Mastura Md Yusof is currently the Head of Oncology Services and consultant clinical oncologist at Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur. She also works at Sime Darby Medical Centre Subang Jaya as a clinical oncology consultant and is a visiting lecturer for the Master in Clinical oncology program at Universiti Malaya. She obtained her Master in Clinical Oncology from Universiti Malaya. Her clinical and research experience covering various cancer types, including breast, colorectal developed when she was working as an Associate Professor and Consultant Clinical Oncologist at Universiti Malaya Medical Centre. Dr Mastura Yusof has authored and co-authored various articles in peer-reviewed journals, participated in multiple clinical trials, advisory boards and expert committee panels in cancer and cancer related issues. She set up her own private practice at Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur and Sime Darby Medical Centre, Subang Jaya in 2015 to concentrate more on clinical and research work within a community setting which she enjoys tremendously. An executive council member of the Malaysian Oncological Society and member of various local and international cancer organizations, Dr Mastura Yusof continues to teach, conducts clinical research and give lectures and share her expertise with many causes which champion cancer awareness, early diagnosis, increasing access to treatment and improving cancer outcome.