

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Muthukkumaran Thiagarajan, Malaysia

Dr Muthukkumaran obtained his Bachelor in Science (Medical Sciences) and Medical Doctor Degree from Universiti Putra Malaysia. He was trained in clinical oncology at Universiti Malaya, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia and Hospital Kuala Lumpur as part of the Masters in Clinical Oncology programme, and graduated in 2013. He served as a Clinical Oncologist at Sabah Women and Children Hospital before his current post at Hospital Kuala Lumpur's Department of Radiotherapy and Oncology.

Dr Muthukkumaran has a special interest in pulmonary and mesenchymal oncology. Specialized radiotherapy interest includes stereotactic cranial radiosurgery and paediatric radiation. His administrative interests are radiotherapy resource management and value based medicine in oncology. Dr Muthukkumaran is currently the Honorary Secretary of Malaysian Oncological Society (MOS) and South East Asia Radiation Oncology Group (SEAROG). He is also involved in the regional activities of Federation of Asian Organizations for Radiation Oncology (FARO) and International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA).