

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Shazril Imran Shaukat, Malaysia

Dr Shazril Imran is a Resident Consultant Clinical Oncologist at Pantai Hospital Sungai Petani, Sessional Oncologist at Pantai Hospital Penang and Visiting Oncologist at Gleneagles Penang. Dr. Imran completed his medical undergraduate training at University of Leicester, United Kingdom. He underwent his Foundation Training in the UK prior to returning to Malaysia to join Surgical Department, Hospital Sultan Abdul Halim as a Medical Officer. Subsequently he was a Trainee Lecturer in Oncology with Universiti Sains Malaysia. He continued his post-graduate training in Clinical Oncology at The Christie NHS Trust and School of Oncology, Manchester, UK before returning as a Clinical Oncologist with Universiti Sains Malaysia.

He attained a Fellowship of the Royal College of Radiologists (FRCR) UK in Clinical Oncology and attained Specialty Certificate (SCE) in Medical Oncology from Federations of Royal College of Physicians, UK.

He is a member of the European Society of Radiation Oncologists (ESTRO) and European Society of Medical Oncologists (ESMO) and a member of Malaysian Oncological Society. He also currently serves as Honorary Lecturer in Oncology at Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM).