

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mr Lum Liang Soo, Malaysia

Mr Lum is an award-winning medical physicist with over 10 years of experience in the Radiation Oncology field. Mr Lum has been involved with numerous state-of-the-art treatment modalities such as the Varian Halcyon, Tomotherapy HD, Cyberknife, Siemens LINACs and Nucletron Microselectron HDR. He was the Head of Medical Physics in his previous establishment at Mount Miriam Cancer Hospital before joining Beacon International Specialist Centre in Dec 2018 as their Head of Planning and QA. His professional interests include research and projects which aim to improve treatment quality as well as producing high-quality plans to the patients' benefits.