

CURRICULUM VITAE

Professor Dr Rohaizak Muhammad, Malaysia

Prof Dr Rohaizak Muhammad graduated from Glasgow University, Scotland in 1991. He obtained the Masters of Surgery UKM in 1997 and FRCS (Glasgow) in 2000. He also completed 3 years training in Breast and Endocrine surgery including a year training as Specialist Registrar in Breast and Endocrine Surgery in Bristol, United Kingdom. After his surgical training in the United Kingdom, Prof Dr Rohaizak served as Consultant Endocrine and Breast Surgeon in UKM Medical centre and continues to train more surgeons especially in the field of Endocrine and Breast surgery. Dr Rohaizak is also active in research and publication especially in the area of Breast and Endocrine Surgery. He has presented and published many articles locally and internationally in the area of breast and endocrine. He is also a member of NSSR Specialty subcommittee: General Surgery (Breast and Endocrine Surgery) , member of the Board of Governance for the National Breast Cancer Registry and was previously Honorary Secretary of the Asian Association of Endocrine Surgeon and Council member for the College of Surgeon of Malaysia. Dr Rohaizak served as the Head of Dept of Surgery, (2006-2007), Deputy Director of Hospital UKM (2007-2008) Deputy Dean of Research and Industry (2008 -2012) UKM Medical Centre and currently is the head of Breast and Endocrine Surgery Unit, UKMMC. He is also Deputy Chair Endocrine Surgery Chapter College of Surgeon of Malaysia and Executive Council member of Asia Pacific Society of Thyroid Surgery.