

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Ng Kim Swan, Malaysia

Dr Ng Kim Swan is a consultant anesthesiologist cum pain specialist working at the Mahkota Medical Center, Melaka and as the visiting Pain Specialist at the Ara Damansara Medical Centre. Graduated from MAHE Manipal, India in 1995 then obtained postgraduation in anesthesiology discipline from Universiti Sains Malaysia in year 2011. Due to her keen interest in pain management, she received sub-specialty training in pain management in 2011. Joined ministry of health at Selayang Hospital as a specialist in general and regional anesthesia since 2004. She has been actively involved in many local and International regional block workshops. She is a life member of Malaysia Association of Study of Pain, Malaysian Society of Anesthesia and member of international Association for the Study of Pain.