

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Nurul Syakima Mutalib, Malaysia

Dr Nurul Syakima is a molecular biologist working at UKM Medical Molecular Biology Institute, Kuala Lumpur as a senior lecturer and Head of Quality Assurance. She graduated with BSc degree followed by PhD in molecular biology from UPM in 2012. She has keen interest in cancer research from the beginning of her career. With an H index of 14, she has published 47 research papers in peer-reviewed journals, 23 abstracts and serve as reviewer in journals. During her tenure in UKM, she completed 4 basic research and currently holding 5 long-term research grants. Recently she secured an international grant as a co-principal investigator and a fellowship for studying microsatellite instability in colorectal cancer. Dr Nurul Syakima is actively involved in cancer research in UKM since year 2013 especially in the field of colorectal cancer.