

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Teoh Soong Kee, Malaysia

Dr Teoh Soong Kee is a senior consultant gynecologist and founder member in KPJ Ipoh specialist Hospital. Graduated (MBBS) from University of Bombay, in 1969, then received MRCOG in 1977 and then FRCOG in 1991. He is also a senior fellow of the Academy of Medicine Malaysia since 2005. He has vast clinical experience in the field of O & G, a former lecturer in the University of Malaya and is a respectable gynecologist in Ipoh. Besides his busy clinical work, he actively participated in MMA activities and served as honorary secretary of the Malaysian Society of Obstetrics & Gynecology. He holds many key positions in various social and Christian organizations and was bestowed Darjah Paduka Mahkota of Perak (PMP) award in 1989. Besides being a medical professional, he is also a brave cancer survivor after intensive chemotherapy for lymphoma in 2013. He has written several books, notably his own experience in a book called "Cell Wars".