

CURRICULUM VITAE

Professor Dr Lim Yang Mooi, Malaysia

Professor Lim is a professor in faculty of medicine and health sciences in University Tunku Abdul Rahman. She obtained her PhD degree on phytochemistry and cancer chemoprevention from University Putra Malaysia in 2001. She is actively involved in teaching and supervising students and involved in basic research in the field of cancer chemoprevention, phytochemistry & Herbal medicine and functional food. Received numerous research grants as principal and co-researcher. Prof Lim published more than 90 research papers in indexed journals and presented papers in National and International conferences.