

CURRICULUM VITAE

Professor Punita Lal, India

Dr. Punita Lal is a Radiation Oncologist working as a Professor, Department of Radiotherapy, Sanjay Gandhi Postgraduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow, India. She is an alumnus of Maulana Azad Medical College, Delhi (MBBS) and AIIMS, New Delhi (MD Radiotherapy) and cleared her DNB examination in 1995. Her fields of interest are Palliative care in Oncology, Head and neck and Breast Cancers, and Cancer registration in India.

Has been awarded Commonwealth Academic staff fellowship in 2011 for a project on in head and neck cancers at Royal Marsden Hospital, London, UK. Also awarded the International Union against Cancer, ICRETT fellowship in 1997 to do a project at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London. Apart from this, she has availed travel fellowships within the country.

She has several national, international and book chapters to her credit. Dr. Punita is currently the department chair and shoulders the department and Institute's administrative responsibilities. She is also actively involved the research activities within the Institute as an active member of the Research Committee and Institute Ethics Committee.