

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Vicknesh Visalingam, Malaysia

Dr Vicknesh Visalingam completed his MBBS in 1993 at Madras University, Tamil Nadu, India. He obtained his Masters in OBS & GYN at the National University of Malaysia, 2001. He has fellowship in Gynaecological Oncology in Malaysia and Singapore (KK Women and Children Hospital, Singapore, which is an accredited centre by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of OBS & GYN). Dr Vicknesh was gazetted as a Gynaecological Oncologist by the Ministry of Health, Malaysia in January 2007.

Currently, Dr Vicknesh is the Head of the Gynaecological Oncology Unit, Department of OBS & GYN at the Selayang Hospital which is one of the Referral Centres for the State of Selangor, Malaysia. The Gynae-Oncology Unit at Selayang Hospital is a training center for Gynaecological Oncology Fellowship.

His research collaboration with the local universities and other agencies are in continuum. Dr Vicknesh's networking with Gynaecological Oncology Centres in the Asia - Oceania Region are also in continuum.

Dr Vicknesh has published and presented papers as well as been an invited speaker in many congresses and public forums. He was affiliated to many Professional Bodies as well as Government and Non-Government Organizations. He was also appointed as a Committee member as well as Advisor in Professional Organizations seeking to improve Gynaecological Oncology Services in Malaysia. Currently Dr Vicknesh is the President of the Malaysian Gynaecological Cancer Society (MGCS).