

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Ashish Kanakia, Malaysia

Dr Ashish Kanakia is a medical doctor and Director of operations of Prudential Assurance Malaysia. He obtained his medical degree from Lokmanya Tilak Municipal Medical College, Mumbai, India in 1994. He also obtained an associate fellowship of industrial health. As a medical doctor, he continued his clinical practice for almost 8-years then developed an interest in the medical insurance sector. He joined as a chief underwriter in Tata-AIG insurance company before joining as head of the technical service in Prudential Assurance Malaysia. Now he is in the position of Director, Medical Business Management at the same organization. He is an experienced director with a demonstrated history of working in the insurance industry. Skilled in financial risk, health insurance, and business relationship management. He is a link between the insurance industry and medical fraternity to enhance collaboration with health innovators to provide value-based care.