

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Ch'ng Ewe Seng, Malaysia

Dr. Ch'ng Ewe Seng is a trained pathologist from Universiti Sains Malaysia. He obtained his Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) degree from Osaka University, Japan in 2004. He was awarded Kusumoto Award from Osaka University upon his graduation. After passing the Japanese National Examination for Physicians, he completed two years of residency in Osaka University Hospital and its affiliated healthcare institutions from year 2004 to 2006. He returned to Malaysia and worked as a medical officer in the Accident and Emergency Department, Penang Hospital, Malaysia for a year. He later joined Universiti Sains Malaysia as a trainee lecturer and underwent training in Anatomic Pathology. He passed the Conjoint Board Examination for Master of Pathology (Anatomic Pathology) in 2012. Since June 2012, Dr. Ch'ng, as a practicing pathologist, provides diagnostic histopathology services first in Hospital Universiti Sains Malaysia and from 2014, in Advanced Medical and Dental Institute, Universiti Sains Malaysia. Dr. Ch'ng is registered both in General Pathology and Anatomical Pathology in National Specialist Register, Malaysia since 2013. In 2017, he has been elevated as a fellow of the International Academy of Cytology after passing the International Board of Cytopathology. Dr. Ch'ng is also active in research, especially those related to human pathology. His research interests include breast pathology, aptamers and repeated pregnancy loss. A total of more than 30 publications have been published in international journals, which garner cumulative citations of 773 and the h-index of 10.